SLAYING THE DRAGON: BYZANTINE SURVIVALS IN THE GREEK WAR OF INDEPENDENCE

Nikos Panou

Stony Brook University

Saturday, October 2

10:00 AM (PST) / 1:00 PM (EST) /
8:00 PM (ATHENS)

The lecture will focus on an aspect of the Greek War of Independence that calls for answers to questions as basic as they are elusive. What role did the Byzantine heritage play in conceptualizing, representing, or animating the struggle against the Ottoman Empire? What strands of Byzantium were foregrounded and through which mechanisms did they find a place in the collective imaginary of the period? In what ways was that process of reception and signification manifested, and to what extent? How can it be studied and properly understood today?

The event is co-sponsored by the UCLA SNF Hellenic Center and Dumbarton Oaks, Washington, DC. Her Excellency Alexandra Papadopoulou, Ambassador of Greece to the United States will provide opening remarks.

Nikos Panou is Assistant Professor of Comparative Literature and Peter V. Tsantes Endowed Professor in Hellenic Studies in the Department of English at Stony Brook University. His current research focuses on articulations of power and authority in pre-modern moral and political discourse, with emphasis on advice literature and related genres. He has written on topics ranging from Byzantine historiography to seventeenth-century satire, and has co-edited a volume on conceptions of tyranny from Antiquity to the Renaissance with Oxford University Press.

DAUGHTERS OF PENELOPE AND AHEPA

The AHEPA families are sending emergency funds to Greece to help of the fires. The Ahepa and Daughters of Penelope, have opened an Emergency Relief Fund in order to send assistance to Greece. All chapters have been asked to send a donation to help with this emergency. Ahepa has coordinated efforts to get food, blankets and medical care to those who have been affected by these fires.

Our chapter will be making a donation to help with this humanitarian cause. If you would like to donate to the Daughters of Penelope Wildfire Fund, make your checks out to Alkandre Chapter 43. Please mail your donation to:

Mary Kezios 10409 Casanes Ave., Downey CA 90241

We thank you for your donations to this cause. Keep Greece in your prayers.

The Daughters of Penelope will be holding a meeting immediately after church on Sunday, September 26 in the Huffington Pavilion. This will be a brief update on our two upcoming fundraisers for our commitments to Project Limbitless and the Guide Dogs of America. So grab a cup of coffee from the coffee hour and come on in! I hope you can attend for a short while to discuss these. New ideas are always welcome!
